WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over forty years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment cures in the privacy of your home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands of bad cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take his advice and be well.

Mrs. R. D. Monfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., O., writes: "I have received the 'Medical Adviser.' A crisp, new five dollar bill could not tempt me to part with it."

On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only, we will send to any address a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser." Or, for 31 stamps the same in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets

The Original LITTLE LIVER PILLS, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. Little pill, Little dose, but give great results in a curative way in all derangements of Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

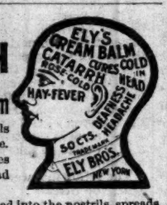
Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm



cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

THE LATE MARQUIS.

The facts of the life of the late Henry Cyril Paget, fifth Marquis of Anglesey, during the six years of his holding of the title, sound like some wild romance written round an imaginary French nobleman of the period just preceding the Revolution. Born in 1875, little is known of the childhood of the young Marquis. Perhaps the first occasion on which he attracted attention was on his marriage in 1898 to his cousin, the beautiful Miss Lillian Chetwynd. The jewels which the Marquis presented to the bride caused comment even in society; they were of a richness which had never been equaled in any wedding gift, and their profusion was almost barbaric. The Marquis had then given the first sign of a jewel mania which afterwards passed all bounds. Within a month after their marriage the young couple separated on the Riviera, and in 1900 the Marchioness obtained a divorce. The Marquis then devoted himself to his favorite pastime of skirt-dancing and theatricals.

The Marquis of Anglesey was the head of the famous Paget family, and was a cousin of Almeric Hugh Paget, son-in-law of the late William C. Whitney, and of Sidney and Arthur Paget. The wife of the latter was the daughter of the late Paran Stevens, of New York. Just after the Marquis came into his title by the death of his father in 1898 he paid a visit to this country. He was the guest of his cousin, Almeric Hugh Paget. When he departed for England he took away a French bulldog, and in some way violated the regulations governing the importation of dogs, for which he was fined $100. While in New York city he attended the Horse Show of 1898 with Mr. and Mrs. Almeric Hugh Paget.

On coming home into his estates the Marquis began to gratify his predilection for jewels, and to such extravagant lengths did this mania carry him that although inherting an income of $550,000 a year, his debts last year amounted to $2,700,000. No price of any precious stones had any terrors for him. The $50,000 pearl scarfpin had attracted most publicity, because it was among those stolen from the Marquis about two years ago, when he lost over $100,000 worth of gems. Diamonds, rubies, emeralds, sapphires, turquoises—nearly all the precious stones found in him a ready buyer. He also devoted some attention to stones of not quite so precious a character and cast a kindly eye upon all sorts of queer charms and examples of queer settings. The object of his craze for pearls seems to have been twofold. Lord Anglesey seemed to have something of the magpie about him, a strange habit of hoarding these precious belongings, which was shown by the unexpected places in which they have been found during the recent searches in Anglesey Castle for the benefit of his clamoring creditors.

The second object with which he bought pearls was a mania for self adornment, which led him into another strange set of excesses—his pursuit of a semi-theatrical career. Lord Anglesey seems always to have been attracted by the theater, but at a certain point in his life he seized upon this means of exhibiting his priceless jewels. His little theater in Anglesey Castle, which he built soon after he succeeded to the estates, was nothing more than a very expensive setting for the be-jewel Marquis. As Pekoe, in "Alad din," the pantomime which he produced in 1902 in his bijou theater, he stood forth literally covered with his jewels. He wore from time to time fresh costumes covered with new gems, the total value of which was estimated at $1,250,000.

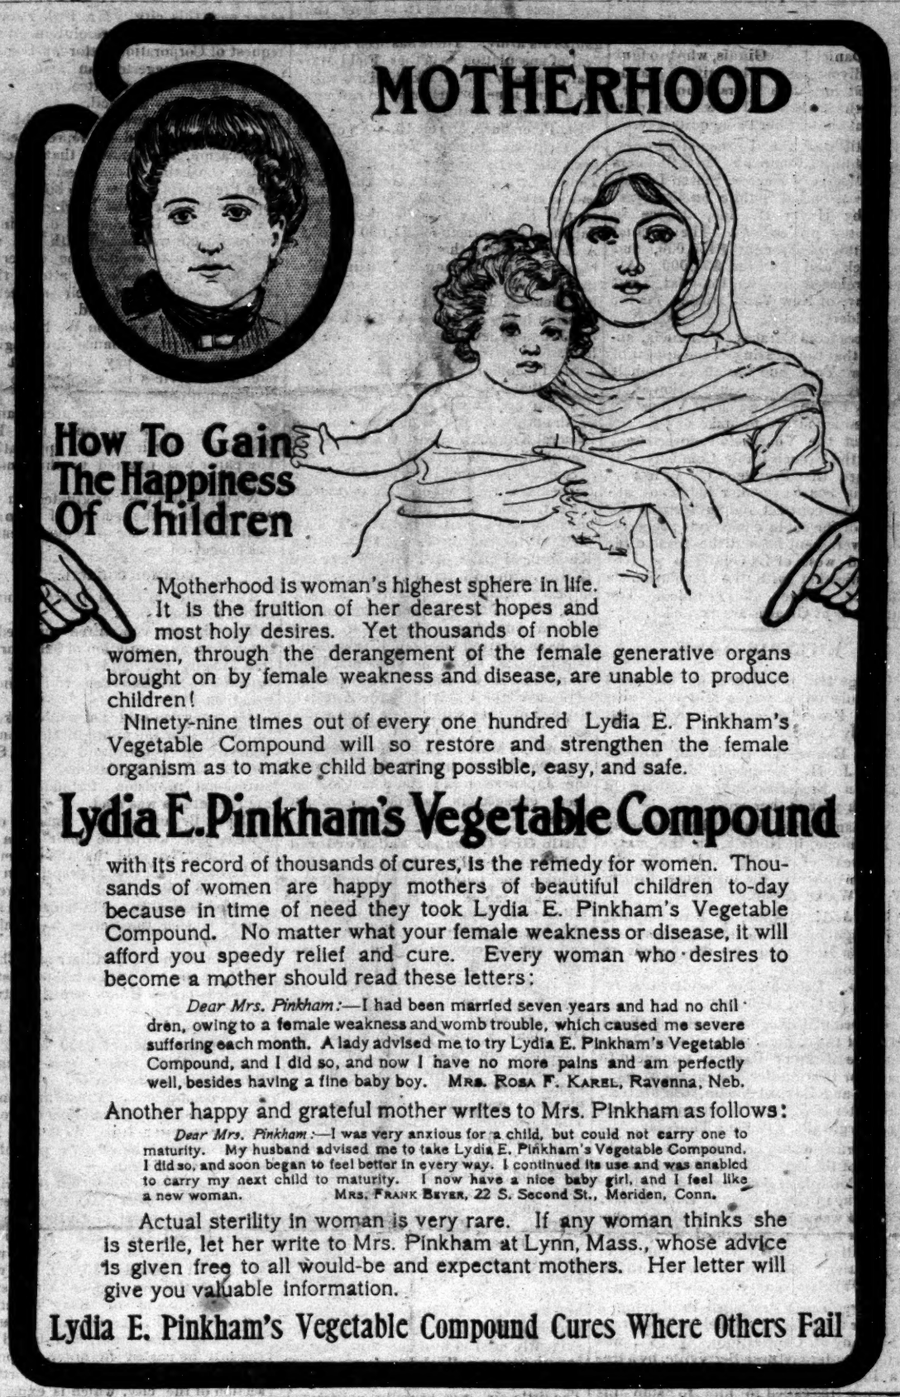
The theatrical expenditures of the Marquis had not the redeeming feature which the acquisition of priceless jewels seemed to possess, and if the object of his life had been the crippling of the family estates he succeeded beyond his wildest hopes. At the meeting of his creditors last June it was stated that after making the best possible provision for the payment of debts the Marquis had before him the hopeless outlook of living on $10,000 a year. When Anglesey Castle was ransacked by the creditors they found it literally packed with valuables of every description. The contents of one unlocked drawer alone were valued at $125,000, while among the crockery in the pantry was found a rock crystal ewer which recently sold at auction for $21,000. After the financial crash the Marquis betook himself to the Continent in the hope of making the most of his attenuated income.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Pleasant and Harmless.

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals and soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough. Sold by all druggists.



Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and most holy desires. Yet thousands of noble women, through the derangement of the female generative organs brought on by female weakness and disease, are unable to produce children!

Ninety-nine times out of every one hundred Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will so restore and strengthen the female organism as to make child bearing possible, easy, and safe.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

with its record of thousands of cures, is the remedy for women. Thousands of women are happy mothers of beautiful children to-day because in time of need they took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No matter what your female weakness or disease, it will afford you speedy relief and cure. Every woman who desires to become a mother should read these letters:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I had been married seven years and had no children, owing to a female weakness and womb trouble, which caused me severe suffering each month. A lady advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did so, and now I have no more pains and am perfectly well, besides having a fine baby boy. MRS. ROSA F. KAREL, Ravenna, Neb.

Another happy and grateful mother writes to Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I was very anxious for a child, but could not carry one to maturity. My husband advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and soon began to feel better in every way. I continued its use and was enabled to carry my next child to maturity. I now have a nice baby girl, and I feel like a new woman. MRS. FRANK BEYER, 22 S. Second St., Meriden, Conn.

Actual sterility in woman is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., whose advice is given free to all would-be and expectant mothers. Her letter will give you valuable information.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures Where Others Fail

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Denison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 15, 1905.

THE DEATH at Monte Carlo yesterday of Henry Cyril Paget, fifth Marquis of Anglesey, at the age of 30 years, ends the career of another individual who adopted "dum vivimus vivamus" as his motto and the Count of Monte Christo as his ideal. Left with a fortune of $2,500,000 and an annual income of half a million, in the incredibly short period of six years he found himself a bankrupt and subsisting on a yearly allowance granted him by his creditors. The wise man, many centuries ago, after having drunk deep of every human pleasure, said "all is vanity"—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye and the pride of life—and such has been the melancholy reflection of many before and since the days of the son of David. The late Lord Beaconsfield in one of his novels observes that satiety is often a greater affliction than poverty. It may be so. Sancho Panza found himself happier in company with old "Dapple" than when surrounded by the court of Barataria. Tittlebat Titmouse in "Ten Thousand a Year," a creature of the imagination, was exceeded in thoughtlessness by the real Marquis of Anglesley, which is another illustration of the correctness of the saying that truth is often stranger than fiction. The history of the race shows that the great as well as small often sink into stupid sensuality when blessed with all this world can give, as is shown in the life of Solomon, who lapsed into idolatry while surrounded by a thousand wives and concubines, and Alexander the Great, who died while steeped in oriental luxury in Babylon.

ADMINISTRATION Senators, foreseeing the probable defeat of the San Domingo treaty, are trying to put the best face possible on the matter for the President by suggesting it would be just as well this country should not enter into any arrangement with the Dominican republic until a committee of Senators has had an opportunity of visiting the island and studying the situation there. This incidentally would also be a nice junketing trip all at the government's pause. As it appears impossible for the administration to drum up enough votes to ratify the treaty, which must therefore fail unless it is withdrawn from the Senate before a vote is taken on it, the scheme of a senatorial visit to San Domingo is perhaps the best way out of the humiliating dilemma of the administration, although in the end the effect will be to emphasize the senatorial preponderance in treaty-making and to lower the prestige of the President in the matter of directing foreign relations. If the scheme of a senatorial investigation in Santo Domingo is carried out, whatever final arrangement is made with the island republic, or if no arrangement at all is made, the outcome will make the policy pursued the Senate's and not that of the President. That the outlook for the treaty is practically hopeless is admitted by a Senator who ought to be better informed on the situation than any other. He admits that the friends of the treaty have been unable to secure promises of support from enough democrats to insure the ratification and that therefore hope has been practically abandoned.

AS NOTHING succeeds like success so, conversely, nothing fails like failure, and this is the case of the Interborough railway strike in New York. It seems that the five thousand employees of the road, who were under contract with the company had no just grounds whatever for a strike but did so just to strike. They had not the sympathy of the community with them at any time and soon it was discovered, but too late, that those who ordered the strike were irresponsible persons and that the order was without proper authority. The men have, so far as a large majority of the strikers are concerned, deprived themselves of employment on New York railroads, and their action has been repudiated by both national organizations of which the striking unions were constituents. One organization has gone to the extent of revoking the charter of its New York branch, and now President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, announces that he will investigate charges that the subway strike had been bought and sold.

AT THE present time there is no scarcity of eggs in New York, enough having come into that city the last two days to let every one have three or four eggs for breakfast all around. In all nearly ten millions eggs have been received there. Wholesale prices have been cut almost in two the last two weeks, having declined from 35 cents to 18 cents, which was yesterday's price for fine new laid western stock. Southern eggs, equally fresh, but smaller, are selling at 17 and 17½ cents. Prices in this section will soon drop below the twenty mark when egg breakfasts will again hold sway.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., March 15.

After a series of conferences lasting from 9:30 to 12 this morning, with prominent Senators, President Roosevelt has decided to allow the Santo Domingo treaty to go over without vote to the next session of Congress. By this means he believes the treaty will be eventually saved, for he thinks the absenteeism of republican Senators now prevents its passage. Were it brought to a vote this week the treaty would be slaughtered by the solid democratic phalanx captained by Senator Gorman. By allowing the measure to be postponed without action, the President will be spared the humiliation of a defeat and the instrument itself will come up for action next session without the odium of a knock out to weigh against its chances. If it were voted upon and killed the republican majority could save it for next time by making a motion to reconsider and causing the vote on the motion to go over until December when the President thinks he could swing the needed three fourths to secure ratification. But the expedient will not be resorted to, the President and his supporters believing that no vote will be more advantageous than a temporary defeat. Among the Senators at the White House this morning were Cullom, Allison, Foraker, Platt of Connecticut, Carter, Beveridge, Clapp, Fulton, Spooner, Burrows, Alger, Gallinger and Frye. The treaty was discussed with all of them and it was with their advice or consent that the President reached the conclusion that his best interests and the best interests of the administration would be subserved by an adjournment of the Senate without a vote on the treaty.

It is the intention of the President to appoint Francis B. Loomis, now Assistant Secretary of State, to the embassy at the City of Mexico as soon as Minister Conger shall have retired from that position. The date of such retirement is now in doubt but it is expected to fall somewhere within the summer, and that he will then become a candidate for the governorship of his native State of Iowa. Mr. Conger has been Minister to China for several years and his promotion to an ambassadorship and retirement is much on the principle followed in the army. It was intended and announced at the time that he would be followed in the Mexican capital by David E. Thompson, now Minister to Brazil, but since then the latter post has been raised to the dignity of an embassy and Mr. Thompson has expressed his entire content with his new status. Mr. Loomis's health is not good and he is now in California in the hope of recovery. Despite the criticism of him in the newspapers and elsewhere because of his supposed connection with Santo Domingo affairs the administration heartily approves of his conduct and the change is considered a promotion, involving an increase of salary amounting to $12,500.

The President today among others sent the following nominations to the Senate: Francis G. Landon, of New York, to be second secretary of embassy at Vienna, Austria; Nelson O'Shaughnessy, of New York, to be secretary of embassy at Berlin; Jesse B. Jackson, of Ohio, to be consul at Alexandretta, Turkey; Albert A. Evans to be postmaster at Mount Jackson, Va.

Minister Griscom at Tokio reports to the State Department that the two American military attaches who were captured with the Russians at Mukden will be taken to Tokio. They are Col. Valery Havard, of the medical corps, and Capt. W. V. Judson, of the engineers. Mr. Griscom adds that a dispatch to him from Capt. Judson states that they are both well and are receiving every possible courtesy from the Japanese. The two officers will probably be sent home on their word of honor not to rejoin the Russian forces.

In order to put himself in trim to tackle the Kansas oil situation, which he purposes to investigate in person, Commissioner of Corporations Garfield will leave tonight for a short fishing trip in the south. Only a few days will be devoted to the sport. Then he will proceed to Kansas to begin the work of investigation. Quite a foundation has already been laid for it, as inspectors have been in the field gathering data along the lines pursued in the beef trust investigation.

This was called international day at the Congress of Mothers, the programme for the three sessions being addresses on various phases of child life the world over. At the morning session, Mrs. Anna F. Murray, of this city, read a paper on "Negro Children in America." She pointed out that negro children, whose ancestors were but recently freed from slavery, are in greater need of home training and care than white children.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 15.

SENATE.

Some little ill feeling was shown on the floor of the Senate today on account of the Santo Domingo affair. Senator Teller introduced a resolution in open session instructing the State Department to furnish the Senate will copies of all correspondence with Commander Dillingham and Minister Dawson respecting the recently negotiated treaty. Senator Cullom objected to the resolution even being read in open session, but Mr. Teller insisted and had the clerk read it in full. Mr. Cullom then objected to its consideration and it went over until tomorrow. The Senate then closed its doors.

The managers of the treaty have practically abandoned all hope of ratifying it at the present session, and will let it go over until the next Congress rather than bring it to a vote at this time with the chances for its defeat. The present session will probably adjourn this week.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Ed and Will Thomas, colored, who killed Professor Claude Hardy, at Pineapple, Ala., Monday, were run down by a mob on Tuesday, and taken to a swamp and hanged.

Jules Stephens, a negro, who brutally assaulted Carl Anderson, was shot to death in his cell at Long View, Texas, yesterday by a mob. Before killing Stephens, the mob gave him a few moments to write a farewell letter to his mother.

Steps toward uniting the Western Canned Goods Association and the Atlantic States Packers' Association were taken at Pittsburg, Pa., last night. The new organization will represent 1,500 packers, whose invested capital aggregates over $20,000,000.

A storm which almost reached a hurricane raged on the Irish and English coasts last night and it is feared that many disasters occurred. Telegraphic communications are broken at many points, so that it is impossible to get definite information. At least two serious wrecks have occurred, and twenty sailors perishing. The storm swept over northern Ireland this morning doing a great deal of damage.

News of the Day.

President David Starr Jordan, of Stanford University, yesterday ex pressed the opinion that Mrs. Stanford's death was not due to strychnine poisoning.

Three thousand miles without a stop, at the rate of 100 miles or more an hour, is the capacity of a new type of locomotive which has been ordered by the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Senator Gorman yesterday gave notice that the members of his party would be unaminously opposed to the ratification of the Santo Domingo treaty. This will bring about the rejection of the protocol.

In New Yora, yesterday a jury in the case of Daniel J. McGinnis, who brougnt suit for divorce against his wife, a grandmother at forty-five years, found a verdict for the husband. The woman's own statement showed her to be quite gay.

The title of the Townsend-Downey Shipbuilding Company in Shooters Island, Mariners' Harbor, Staten Island, N. Y., was sold at public auction yesterday by Henry H. Ide, trustee in bankruptcy proceedings. The ground and buildings brought $455,000, and the stock and fixtures $51,000. All was purchased by the Colonial Trust Company, of New York, trustee for the bondholders.

Advices from Caracas, Venezuela, announce that the hearing of the appeal of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company against the sequestration of its property by the government of Venezuela has been adjourned to make way for the action of the Venezuelan government against the French Cable Company. It is alleged that President Castro has ordered the court to render judgment annulling the contract and authorizing the seizure of the cable company's property. The government has cut the coast cable east and west of La Guaira to prevent communication with the revolutionists who are active at Trinidad. The Europeans at Caracas are excited.

Virginia News.

George Hill was struck on the head by a pole on a wagon Monday, near Relief, Frederick county, and almost instantly killed.

Mrs. Emma A. Robinson, wife of Officer J. H. Robinson, died at her home in Fredericksburg yesterday in the 54th year of her age.

William Talbot Walke died yesterday at his home, in Norfolk, in the sixty-eight year of his age. He was the senior member of the insurance firm of W. T. Walke & Son.

Col. A. K. McClue, of Philadelphia, last night spoke at the Academy of Music in Richmond, for the benefit of the Home for Needy Confederate Women. Later he was tendered a reception by Gov. Montague.

Governor Montague yesterday declined to grant the commutation of sentence in the case of Peter Dancey, sentenced to hang for the murder of a negro woman. Dancy and Edward Austin, both negroes, the latter condemned for criminal assault on a negro girl, will hang Thursday.

Information has been received in Richmond of the death of Mr. Robert Spottswood Pollard, of Bolckow, near Middlesborough, in the vicinity of London. Mr. Pollard was superintendent of construction for the Vaughan Steel Works, and was killed instantly while attending to his duties. Mr. Pollard was born in King William county.

George Lucas, engaged in driving a lumber team for the Jefferson Cooperage Company of Charlestown, W. V., was killed yesterday near Berryville, by a tree falling upon him. Some men cutting down a tree called to him to stop his team, but before he could do so he drove under the falling tree and was killed. He was a resident of Charlestown.

M. H. Haas, one of the oldest residnets of the Peninsula, died at the Soldiers' Home, Hospital, near Hampton, Monday night, after a two-week's illness of heart trouble. He was 69 years old. He was sheriff of Elizabeth City county for eight years, served four years as postmaster at Old Point Comfort, and was a leader of the republican party in that section.

THE WAR.

While it is believed the Russian war council at its meeting yesterday considered the question of peace, announcement was made that the war would be continued. The action of the French bankers, however, in deciding to postpone issue of the proposed new Russian loan indefinitely because of the uncertainties of the war situation is considered significant. In some quarters the bankers' action is considered evidence that Russia has reached the end of her resources. It is reported that the French government has notified the bankers that they must not conclude the loan unless Russia is prepared to negotiate peace. The Russian Foreign Office, however, insists that Russia has not the slightest idea of peace.

Field Marshal Oyama, according to a Tie Pass correspondent, does not appear to be pressing his advantage in an immediate attack upon that position, but the Russians fear the reported wide turning movement of the Japanese, who have the great advantage of several bases and lines of supply. Kuropatkin is now sole dependent upon one base and one line of communication. He must remove his supplies from Tie Pass if he plans retiring to Harbin, as there are no stores laid up between those two points. The greater part of the retreating Russians have reached Tie Pass.

Two American army officers, supposed to be Major Macomb and Captain Judson, were with the Russians captured near Mukden.

Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch, second cousin of the Czar, is again mentioned as successor to General Kuropatkin as commander-in-chief, but the Czar's advisers now favor General Lukhomlinoff

Nearly all the newspaper correspondents have left Tie Pass because there is nothing there to eat, no sleeping shelter, and the officers are too surly to give information.

The Associated Press correspondent at Tie Pass sends the first complete story of the battle of Mukden.

A semi-official denial was given out in St. Petersburg yesterday of the reported recall of the Russian second Pacific squadron.

Earthquake shocks were felt throughout Southern Italy today. A huge sulphur wall collapsed in the mines at Licata, and twenty eight men were buried. Seven bodies have already been removed from the mines.

Today's Telegraphic News

Japanese Repulsed.

London, March 15.—A dispatch to the Central News from Tieling states that the Japanese attacked the fortifications outside of that town, but were repulsed. It is believed the Japanese suffered heavy losses.

Tie Pass is the position to which the remnants of General Kuropatkin's army retreated after the defeat at Mukden. The pass had been fortified to some extent by the Russians previously to the time the Russians fell back upon it in force and the defenses have been strengthened since that time. It is there that General Kuropatkin planned to reorganize his army. There has been a great deal of speculation whether Field Marshal Oyama would attack the Pass without giving time for his army to rest after the prolonged battle.

St. Petersburg, March 15.—An official dispatch from General Kuropatkin confirms the early reports of fighting near Tieling. In his dispatch General Kuropatkin says: "An attack on our center of the Fan river was repulsed. The Japanese losses included $1,000 killed." A dispatch from the from the front in regard to the fighting at Tieling says that the Japanese attack was repulsed by General Linevitch's troops. The Russian losses are given as 1,000, while the Japanese left that many dead on the field.

St. Petersburg, March 15.—It is reported that Grand Duke Nicholaivitch has been appointed commander in chief of the army in Manchuria to succeed General Kuropatkin, with General Soukhomlinoff as chief of staff.

Singapore, March 15.—Four Japanese cruisers have arrived off this port from the eastward. They are apparently the advance guard of Admiral Togo's fleet.

St. Petersburg, March 15.—Prince Khilkoff, Minister of Public Works and Railways, in an interview on the subject of peace being declared said: "Personally, I would be glad to see the end of the war, but peace is impossible. Since we have received General Kuropatkin's telegram relative to the situation, there is no reason for alarm. The question of peace could be solved by the Zemstvos Sober, but they will not be summoned soon."

Tokio, March 15.—The American steamer Tacoma has been captured by the Japanese on the claim that she has been engaged in carrring contraband goods.

Little Girl Outraged and Murdered.

Westchester, Pa., March 15.—Mary Deluka, the four-year-old daughter of an Italian laborer, at Howellsville, two miles from Berwyn was outraged and killed last night by an unknown person, and her seven-year-old brother, who went to her defense, was probably fatally injured by his sister's assailant. The boy was brought to the Westchester Hospital, where his condition is critical. One shoulder is dislecated and his skull fractured. Mary's corpse was found in a blacksmith shop, used by the quarrymen. Her brother, unconscious and bleeding, was lying outside the door. The boy could only tell a disconnected story when first brought to the hospital and this morning was unconscious and incapable of talking. From what he said, two strange men met him and his sister and coaxed them into the blacksmith shop, which was deserted at that time. It is evident from his story that when the men attacked his sister, her screams brought him to her defense. One of the men turned on him, and beat him severely. A bloody pickaxe handle found on the floor of the shop was evidently used to beat the boy into unconsciousness. With the boy silenced, the men proceeded to their awful work. The little girl was brutally maltreated. The Italians at Howellsville are wildly excited today and are making dangerous threats. The parents of the children are distracted, and the father, who works in the quarry, armed with a shot gun, says he will shoot the men who killed his daughter on sight.

The Disorders in Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 15.—It is stated on good authority that the attacks of the peasants on landed proprietors of Chernigoff province are the result mainly of provocation on the part of police agents. Leaflets which were scattered among the peasants inciting them to revolt, professed to emanate from the social democratic party, which, in fact, does not work among the peasants of this district. It is supposed that the object of the agitation is to demonstrate to the nobles and the active members of the Zemstvos their helplessness in the presence of an element which the government alone can control by employment of force. The strike here has been formally ended. There is great distress among the workers. No further disturbance is anticipated before May.

St. Petersburg, March 15.—At a conference of government officials yesterday regarding a revision of the laws regulating the press, article 140 was discussed, at length. This article gives the minister of the interior the power of forbidding the discussion in the press of the affairs of state. It was decided to abolish the article, and replace it with a regulation similar to that which obtains in Germany, which authorizes the government in time of war or peril to the empire to limit the liberty of the press.

Unfortunate Midnight Bout.

New York, March 15.—Pretty Mamie Savage, just passed her twenty-sixth year, lies dead today, and her friend, Thomas J. Deegan, a young broker, is held as a witness, as the unfortunate ending of a wild midnight drinking bout last night in Brooklyn. Early this morning a cabman named Gow drove a cab up to the door of the Gates avenue station. The police saw that the occupants, a man and a woman, were in a wretched condition, and summoned a physician, who declared that the woman had been dead an hour or two. The man recovered later. He said that he had gone out with Miss Savage, and that after drinking many glasses of gin with her, he remembers nothing more. The cabman says the pair staggered out of a saloon at Myrtle avenue and Throop street, and fell into the coach. He was told at the saloon to take them to some Raines law hotel. Gow said that he drove for hours trying to find a hotel that was open, and failed to find one He noticed that the pair were in a collapsed condition, and he then drove to the police station. The bottle from which the pair drank has been confiscated. It is the opinion of the police that the girl was overcome with liquor and died.

The Market.

Georgetown, Mar. 15.—Wheat $1.00@$1.10.

City Council.

The meeting of the City Council last night lasted about an hour and half. The volume of business transacted was comparatively small.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the Aldermen were present, and the business was transacted without discussion.

Mr Fisher introduced a resolution providing that the Mayor, Corporation Attorney and City Engineer attend the hearing before the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and protest against placing the outlet of the Washington sewer near this city. Mr. Fisher stated that he presented the resolution at the request of Corporation Attorney Boothe.

Mr. Burke suggested an amendment providing for a committee from each board of the City Council.

Mr W. H. Sweeney thought the City Council should be represented on the occasion, and moved that a committee, consisting of the Presidents and Vice Presidents of the two boards, be appointed to attend the hearing.

After some interchange of opinion the resolution was passed with the understanding that should the officers of the boards be unable to attend they appoint members of their respective bodies to act in their stead.

A communication from W. H. Bontz, engineer of the Reliance fire engine, asking Council to pay him $2.50 per month for services in keeping the old Hydraulion engine in order, was presented. The petition was accompanied by a communication from the Fire Wardens endorsing the application. The paper was referred to the finance committee.

No other business originated in the Aldermen and the action of Common Council on a number of papers sent in was concurred in.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board was called to order shortly before 8 o'clock p. m.

The finance committee reported in favor of an appropriation of $200 for the free kindergarten and the report was agreed to—Mr. Snowden voting in the negative.

Mr. Snowden said he would like to have voted for the appropriation, but he believed the constitution of the State forbade such appropriations. The constitutional provision forbidding such appropriations was read.

Capt. Bryan, of the finance committee, agreed with the Chair to a certain extent, but said that the committee had looked upon the appropriation as a charitable object, and had therefore reported favorably. The ladies, he said, had exhausted themselves in behalf of this object.

The Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company was authorized to construct a bridge across Union street, between Queen and Princess streets.

The street committee reported in favor of an appropriation of $350 for a pipe sewer on Duke street from Royal to Pitt, which was agreed to.

The committees on streets and finance reported in favor of an $8,500 appropriation for a sewer from West and King streets draining the western part of the city into Hooff's run.

Mr. Leadbeater said that the original appropriation of $7,500 had been increased and he explained the need and the details of the work. He said this was only part of a sewer system which would cost probably $35,000, but would drain all the city west of Alfred street; the western end of King street and adjacent streets, he said, are frequently flooded by rain water, and urged that the bill be passed in order to provide modern conveniences for the northwest section of the city, which is expected to build up rapidly in the near future.

Mr. Spinks said that the section of the city in which he lived might be temporarily benefited by placing the proposed sewer there, but the coming generation would curse the Council that ordered it. The whole western section of the city could be drained in another way at less cost. The whole revenue from the assessed value of the real estate above West street would not equal the amount purposed to be spent.

Mr. Leadbeater said the question was a difficult one. A ridge across the city divided it into two water sheds, one east and one west. This plan was the best that could now be devised.

Mr. Uhler was in favor of sewers but was not willing to pay $8,500 to dump the city's sewage on somebody else, with $35,000 to be paid later, and a pumping station to be worked at additional cost.

Mr. Burke favored the appropriation and said the sewer should be built as it would drain that entire section.

Mr. Snowden was willing to build such sewers as were needed, but he did not see why the city should pay for sewerage for the benefit of the new railroad depot which was in Fairfax county, and built outside the city to avoid taxation. If we are to spend $8,500 let it be spent for the benefit of the people in the city who for years had paid the money to build the sewers. He said he understood that if the city undertook to send the the sewage toward the mouth of Hooff's run it would meet an injunction by the people who owned the property.

Mr. Leadbeater replied that the legal question had been looked into by the Corporation Attorney.

At the request of Mr. Spinks the subject was laid over until the next meeting that the members might have an opportunity of considering the matter. A petition from the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jeffres, for an appropriation of $45 for a catch basin on Washington street near the Trinity M. E. Church was referred.

A petition from the owners of property on Alfred street, between Queen and Princess streets, asking that small cobblestones instead of gravel be used in improving that square, was referred to the street committee.

An application for a sewer in Friendship Alley was referred.

Mr. Strauss moved that the Corporation Attorney prepare an ordinance providing for vitrified brick pavements on Royal street from Cameron to Prince street; this was, he said, in lieu of his resolution to lay vitrified brick around the Market square. The matter was referred.

Permission was given for a slag roof on the bakery of Corby & Bros. on north Lee street provided no objection be made by the adjoining property owners.

An application of M. S. Fairfax for a sewer on St. Asaph street, between Cameron and Queen, was referred.

Council concurred in the Aldermen's resolution requesting the Mayor and other officials to appear before the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to protest against dumping the sewage of Washington opposite Alexandria.

Also in relation to the petition of W. H. Bontz for additional compensation in caring for the old Hydraulion engine.

A communication was read from Miss Virginia A. Burke of the Co operative Charities asking an additional appropriation of $300 for the succor of the poor.

Mr. Bryan moved that the appropriation be made at once and the Chair asked if the rules permitted the appropriation to be made tonight.

Mr. Bryan—An appropriation less than $1,000 may be made on the night of its introduction. The appropriation was made.

The Chair called attention to the fact that a colored man showing symptoms of smallpox, had come here from Prince William and was being cared for by the city medical authorities; he held that the man should not be a charge upon the city and related instances of the heavy expenses the city had previously borne in similar cases. It was the unanimous opinion of the members of the board that the man should be sent out of town immediately, but no action was taken. The board then adjourned.

The Mormon Menace.

Senator Fred T. Dubois, of Idaho, talked to the Mothers' Congress last night on "The Purity of the Home." His speech was chiefly a historical review of Mormonism in the United States and a severe arraignment of the doctrines and practices of the Mormon organization. He declared with emphasis that there should be no toleration of the present teachings and practices of the Mormon hierarchy, and in suggesting a remedy said:

"It is the duty of the United States Senate so to act on the case of Senator Apostle Reed Smoot as to serve notice on the polygamous head of this church and his apostles that they must live within the law; that the nation is supreme; that the institutions of this country must prevail throughout the land; and, second, there should be an amendment to our Constitution wide enough in its scope to place plural marriage and political control by the church entirely out of the realm of possibility."

Senator Dubois declared that Mormonism is the greatest single menace which confronts us as a people. Polygamy, he said, was practiced by Joseph Smith as early as 1841, as a command from God, and it has been practiced from that day to this in defiance of all law.

Then the Senator contiuued: "The President of the Mormon Church and more than one-half of the apostles are openly living in polygamy today, and the testimony taken before the committee shows that several of the apostles have entered into polygamous marriages since the issuance of the manifesto. It is known that new polygamous marriages are being constantly entered into."

Senator Bacon Stricken.

Senator Bacon, of Georgia, was seized with a sudden attack of illness in the executive session of the Senate late yesterday afternoon and the session was brought to an abrupt close. Mr. Bacon took the floor, expecting to occupy the time before adjournment for the day in opening his argument, which was expected to be very exhaustive and has been awaited with much interest by his colleagues. At the moment he took the floor to address the Chair it was observed by his colleagues that he appeared suddenly to be in distress. He tried to speak, but could not articulate. After repeated efforts to recover himself, and without being able to utter a sound, he suddenly threw up his arms as if in an effort to grasp something and fell to the floor in a state of complete collapse. A number of Senators rushed to his assistance, chafing his hands and rendering such aid as suggested itself in the excitement. Senator Gallinger, who is a physician, procured restoratives, which were administered, and after awhile Mr. Bacon was sufficiently recovered to be able to speak and to be removed from the Senate chamber and sent home. The Senate immediately adjourned. Mr. Bacon's condition occasions the greatest solicitude on the part of his friends.

At the close of the session he was very much fagged from overwork, but declined to relax his energy, and since the extra session began he has worked very hard in connection with the Santo Domingo treaty. His attack today is the direct result of his overtaxing himself.

Robbed by a Negro.

When Charles F. Ehler, accompanied by his wife, stepped to the window of the ticket office at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot in Washington last night to purchase tickets to his home town, Rapid City, N. D., he displayed a large roll of money. Mr. Ehler notice a large, light-colored negro standing near by, eyeing his purse, but thought little of it until he and his wife had boarded the train and taken seats in a day coach, when just as the train started the same negro came through the car and brushed against Mr. Ehler. The negro hurried to the car platform and jumped off.

Mr. Ehler felt for his pocketbook, and found it gone. He rushed to the platform in pursuit, and jumped off the steps just as the train was crossing Maryland avenue. The speed at this time was so great that Mr. Ehler was rolled over and over as he struck the ground, and narrowly escaped getting under the wheels. The trainmen stopped the train quickly, and Mr. Ehler, on being picked up, explained that he was not hurt, but that he wanted his pocketbook. The negro, however, had disappeared, and the police late last night were still looking for him. Mrs. Ehler left the train and went with her husband to detective headquarters to report the robbery. They have been visiting friends at 912 P street northwest, and after leaving headquarters returned to that address to wait over another day. Mr. Ehler said the pocketbook contained $33 in cash, and some papers that were of no value to any one except himself.

Owing to heavy damages to the tracks on the coast and Tehachipi routes the Southern Pacific Railway has stopped all the trains to Los Angeles, Cal., until further notice. A thousand passengers on their way south are held at Los Angeles. Some lack money and suffer from want of food.

Attacked by a Mob

Official.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the city of Alexandria, Va., held March, 14, 1905, there were present:

J. T. Sweeney, esq., President, and Messrs. Hill, Burke, Marbury, Ballenger, Fisher, Curtin and W. H. Sweeney.

Mr. Fisher introduced the following which was adopted by a unanimous vote:

Be it resolved by City Council of Alexandria that the Mayor, the City Engineer, the Health Officer and the Corporation Attorney and the Presidents and Vice Presidents of each board of the City Council be, and they are hereby, requested to appear before the Commissioners of the District of Columbia at a hearing to be held on March 17, 1905, and to protest against the proposed discharge of the sewage of the city of Washington a short distance north of this city. Should either of the Presidents or Vice Presidents of the boards of Council be unable to attend, they shall be empowered to appoint members of their respective boards in their stead.

A petition from Wm. H. Bontz, engineer of the Reliance fire engine, for a monthly allowance of $2.50 for services in attending to the old Hydraulion engine now in the Reliance engine house, accompanied by a communication from the Board of Fire Wardens recommending the same, was referred to the Finance Committee.

The following were received from the Common Council and their action concurred in by unanimous votes:

The report of the Finance Committee on a petition of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten for an appropriation of $200.

An ordinance granting to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company the privilege of constructing a bridge over Union street, between Queen and Princess.

Report of the Committee on Streets on a petition of P. Aitcheson for permission to add mansard roofs to two houses he purposes to build on Duke street, between Royal and Pitt, together with the committee's recommendation that an appropriation of $350 be made to build a pipe sewer from the Royal street sewer westward on Duke to Pitt street.

Petition of M. S. Fairfax for a sewer on St. Asaph street, between Cameron and Queen.

Permission of Corby Brothers to place a slag roof on the engine room of their bakery, 208 north Lee street

Resolution directing the Corporation Attorney to prepare ordinances providing for the paving with vitrified brick of Royal street from Cameron to King and from King to Prince street.

Resolution providing for the construction of a sewer in Friendship alley, between Alfred and Patrick streets.

Bill of James B. Hughes, $12.85, for plumbing.

Petition of the Co-operative Charities for an additional appropriation of $300.

Petition of sundry residents of north Alfred street for the paving of the square between Queen and Princess with small cobblestones.

Resolution appropriating $45 for the construction of a catch basin on the east side of Washington street, between King and Prince.

The board then adjourned.

J. T. SWEENEY, President.

Teste: LUTHER H. THOMPSON, Clerk.

COMMON COUNCIL.

At a regular meeting of the Common Council of Alexandria, Va., held March 14, 1905, there were present: Hubert Snowden, esq., President, and Messrs. Leadbeater, Burke, Risheill, Strauss, Baader, Brill, Hellmuth, Harrison, Uhler, Marshall, Spinks and Bryan.

An ordinance granting to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company the privilege of constructing a bridge over Union street, between Queen and Princess streets, was recommended by the joint Committee on Streets and General Laws and read the second and third times and passed—ayes 13, noes 0.

Upon recommendation of the Committee on Streets $350 was appropriated to build a pipe sewer from the Royal street sewer westward on Duke street to Pitt street, with manholes, basins and connections—ayes 13, noes 0.

The Finance Committee recommended an appropriation of $200 for the Alexandria Free Kindergarten, which was adopted: Ayes, Messrs. Leadbeater, Burke, Risheill, Strauss, Baader, Brill, Hellmuth, Uhler, Marshall, Spinks and Bryan, (11); noes, Mr. President (1).

Upon petition from the Co-operative Charities Association, $300 was appropriated for the relief of poor—ayes 13, noes 0.

Upon petition, permission was granted Corby Brothers to cover roof over engine room at No. 208 north Lee street with slag, the adjoining property owners not objecting.

A report from the joint Committee on Streets and Finance recommending an appropriation of $8,500 to commence a trunk sewer at Hooff's run bridge at Duke and Peyton streets, and up Peyton to King and eastward to West street was considered and laid over to be taken up at the next regular meeting.

The following were referred to the Committee on Streets:

A resolution appropriating $45 to build a catch basin in alley on east side of Washington street, between King and Prince streets.

Also a petition from property owners on north Alfred street to pave square between Queen and Princess streets with small cobblestones.

Also a bill from Mr. J. B. Hughes for $12.85 for repairing a water pipe on north Washington street.

Also a resolution by Mr. Marshall to lay a sewer in Friendship alley, between Alfred and Patrick streets.

Also a petition from Mr. M. S. Fairfax for a sewer on St. Asaph street, between Cameron and Queen streets.

A resolution instructing the Corporation Attorney to draw ordinances to pave Royal street, between Cameron and King street and between King and Prince streets, was offered by Mr. Strauss and referred to the joint Committee on Streets and General Laws.

The following were received from the Board of Aldermen and their action concurred in:

A petition from Mr. Wm. H. Bontz for an extra allowance of $2.50 per month.

Also a resolution directing certain officers of the city to appear before the Commissioners of the District of Columbia on March 17, 1905, to protest against the proposed discharge of sewage north of this city.

The board then adjourned.

HUBERT SNOWDEN, President.

COURT OF APPEALS.

These were the proceedings yesterday in the Court of Appeals:

Wright vs. Agelasto, trustee; argued and submitted.

Lawler and others vs. French and others; argued and continued.

Next cases to be called are Williamson vs. Southern Railway Company, Mickens vs. Phillips, and Butler vs. The News Leader Company, being Nos. 67, 68 and 69 on argument docket.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Recent Accident.

The coroner's jury in the case of Frederick Schneider, who died from injuries received in the accident on the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway at Spring Park on Wednesday, March 1, and in which a large number of other passengers were more or less painfully hurt, was reconvened at 10:30 o'clock this morning at Demaine & Son's undertaker's establishment. There were a large number of witnesses present, whose testimony, in substance, was about the same. The case was conducted by Coroner Purvis and the jury was composed of Messrs. Joseph Lowenbach, Robert Graham, M. Ruben, George Uhler, Edgar Warfield, jr., and Henry F. Robertson.

The witnesses were brought in singly and neither heard the testimony of him or her who preceded.

The first witness called was Dr. Wm. M. Smith, surgeon for the electric railway. He said that he had repaired to the scene and found Frederick Schneider in a car and accompanied him to the Alexandria Hospital, where he found his injuries to consist of a cut on the temple, knot on the head, bruise on the chest and both legs below the knees badly crushed, with the bones protruding therefrom. The man died that night, principally from shock. At the autopsy he learned that the man's organs were in good condition, except an unusual fatty growth around the heart, but that the deceased had died from shock due to his injuries.

H. B. Caton stated that he was a passenger on the northbound train and that it did not stop at Payne street. He was seated in the trailer three seats from the front and did not have any intimation of the accident until after it had occurred. The train had stopped at Washington street, but, although there were three people waiting at Payne street, it passed on. He did not recognize Schneider as the man standing on the platform.

Mark L. Price, jr., saw a man standing on the platform, but did not recognize him as Schneider. He said the train did not stop at Payne street.

Capt. A. A. Davis, conductor on the southbound train, stated that he left Washington at 6:05 on the night of the accident and that the trip was without incident until he reached the point about 50 yards from Spring Park, where the accident occurred. Upon being interrogated he said that on the night in question his train was due at the switch above Spring Park at 6:28 o'clock, but did not arrive until 6:30. No notice had been given him of a special train being run, or to look out for any.

John Sutton, motorman of the southbound train, testified that he left Washington at 6:05 and upon entering the archway near Spring Park he noticed the approach of the northbound train and knowing that a collision was inevitable jumped from his motor. When he arrived at the switch near the scene of the accident it was between 6:30 and 6:31. He was due at that point at 6:28, but had sufficient time to meet the 6:30 train from Alexandria at Payne street and was proceeding there when the accident occurred. He had received neither notice nor signal of the approach of an extra. Upon being questioned he stated that he was not always given notice of the running of extras, but had to use his own discretion in avoiding accidents.

John Kerrick, conductor of the northbound train, stated that on the night in question he had arrived in Alexandria from Mount Vernon late and had been instructed by Mr. Smithers, dispatcher at the Royal street station, to proceed to Washington as an extra. His train proceeded, when it passed a train on the siding at Washington street. After leaving Washington street they were on their way north when the accident occurred. In answer to a question, he said that he had received no orders to meet any train at a given point and that he had entirely overlooked the 6:05 train from Washington.

Harry Hudson, motorman of the northbound train said that his orders were to run to Washington as an extra. He left Royal street at 6:23 and proceeded to Washington street and passed a train on the siding, and took it to be 275, or the 6:05 train from Washington. He was proceeding northward when he saw the lights of an approaching train dear Spring Park when he jumped. He afterward learned that the train he passed was No. 277. He had received no instructions to meet any train. The witness further stated that the current of his train was cut off and the speed was between 5 and 10 miles an hour. Upon being cross-questioned, the witness stated that he had overlooked the southbound train.

Several other witnesses testified, but their evidence was of no material value.

After deliberating for about half an hour the coroner's jury returned the following verdict:

Frederick C. Schneider came to his death on the evening of March 1, 1905, in a collision on the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway, due to carelessness on the part of J. N. Kerrick, conductor, and H. D. Hudson, motorman, on the north bound train, they both testifying to having overlooked south bound train No. 275.

If any further legal steps are to be taken in the matter they must be by the grand jury.

Stoning Houses.

Complaint has recently been made by women living on north Lee street of the action of certain mischievous youths who stone their houses in the night time. A night or two ago while several youngsters were thus diverting themselves Officers Beach and Lyles made their apparance and barely escaped being struck on their heads by flying fragments of brick. The missiles came from lots on the east side of the street. The officers procured a lantern and searched the premises, but failed to find any one. Later a young man was arrested on suspicion of being one of the offenders. He left $5 collateral for his appearance this morning in the Police Court, but could not be found when his name was called.

A meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight.

Sand-digging Operations.

The sand-digging operations in the river have been resumed for the coming season. The big sand and gravel digging machine of the Louis E. Smoot Company, of this city, was taken down the river a day or two ago and will start work on the sand and gravel beds on the Virginia flats, a short distance below the long wharf at Fort Hunt. The machine has recently been given a general overhauling at this place. In a few days the other digging machines belonging to the local sand and gravel companies will be taken to the digging grounds down the river, and barges, laden and light, in tow of the sand companies' tugs, will be a familiar sight on the river. It is stated that during the coming summer the Potomac Dredging Company will add a big digging machine to its plant in service on the Potomac. The small sand pump of the Smoot Company is on the marine railway at the shipyard for repairs to her hull and for such other work as may be necessary to put her in condition for effective service.

Police Court.

There were but two cases on the docket of the Police Court this morning.

Charles Robey had been arrested by Officer Beach and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct. He failed to appear when his name was called and forfeited $5 collateral. Jesse Binnit had been taken in charge last night by Officers Roberts charged with breaking and entering the house of G. H. Hodges. Binnit, who is an itinerant cigarmaker, had during the day been ejected from the saloon, and between two and three o'clock this morning word was sent to the station house that a burglar was in the lower part of the house. Officer Roberts returned to the place and found Binnit on the outside. The front door had been unlocked and a key in Binnit's pocket fitted the lock. There was reason to believe that he had opened the door and was prowling about when his movements were heard. Binnit was taken to the station house and this morning Justice Caton sent him to jail for ten days.

Good Performance.

Kearsand's Minstrel troupe was the attraction at the Opera House last night. The opening part of the performance was resplendent with beautiful and fancy costumes, while the jokes were original and funny and the songs of a catchy and sentimental vein, the singing being far above the average. The olio was a feature in its entirety, each number being well chosen, cleverly enacted and heartily applauded. The attraction is no doubt the leading colored minstrel troupe on the road this season. While this company is a colored organization it caters to the white patronage and the management of the Opera House will on all such occasions have the reserve seats at the disposal of white patrons.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Andrew Sullivan took place this afternoon from the residence on north Royal street, and was attended by relatives, friends and acquaintances. The services were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Ewell, Phillips and Brooke. R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans attended in a body, and the pallbearers were Messrs. C. S. Taylor, James Hammond, G. W. Ramsay, J. C. Milburn, E. C. Graham and P. F. Gorman. The Friendship Veteran Fire Association, of which the deceased was a member, also attended the funeral.

River Notes.

A new blade has been placed in the propeller wheel of the Baltimore and Ohio railway tug Major Brewerton and the tug is again in the transfer service.

One of the large lighters built here Messrs. John P. Agnew & Co., of Washington has gone into commission in that harbor, and will be used in carrying coal to the various steamboat lines in Washington. A second lighter is rapidly nearing completion at this port and as soon as it is ready for service it will be used on the same line of work.

Arguments Heard.

Attorneys C. C. Carlin, Edmund Burke, Douglass Stuart, J. K. M. Norton and Leo P. Harlow are in Richmond on business before the Court of Appeals in the case of Lawler vs. French. Messrs. Norton and Stuart represent Mr. Martin Lawler; Mr. Harlow represents the Washington National Building and Loan Association and Messrs. Carlin and Burke represent Mrs. R. W. French. The suit is over the possession of the residence of Mr. R. W. French on south Washington street.

End of the Period.

The six weeks of groundhog weather expired today. The rodent saw his shadow on the 2d ultimo, at the advent of the six weeks of frigid and uncertain conditions, and could bask in the mellow sunshine at its close today. The globe in its annual journey around the sun is nearing its vernal equinox, at which time meteorological disturbances may be expected. But the winter will soon be a thing of the past, and in a short time nature will again be showing signs of life.

Alexandria Light Infantry.

The Alexandria Light Infantry was inspected last night by Col. Jo. Lane Stern at the armory on south Royal street. Capt. P. J. Murphy and First Lieut. Windsor Demaine had command of the company, and it is said to have made an excellent showing. As has been stated, Mr. Charles Pierpoint, who was elected second lieutenant at a meeting of the company Monday night, declined to serve, and for the present this office will remain vacant.

The Fishery.

The Potomac fishing shores are being rapidly prepared for the advance guard of shad and herring. Among the shores to be fished this year are Tent Landing, Tulip Hill, Ferry Landing, Moxley's Point, Chapman's Point, Hight Point, Waller's, the Gums, Windmill Point and Plum Tree Gut.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

It is understood that a depot for receiving and shipping eggs is to be established in this city.

An unconfirmed report is in circulation in this city to the effect that Mr. Crandall Mackey will soon resign his position as Commonwealth's Attorney for Alexandria county.

Mrs. Ella M. Thacher, national superintendent of the soldiers and sailors' department of the W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Randolph, district superintendent, met the ladies of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon and gave most inspiring and helpful addresses on their departments. They also attended the boys' night school and spoke to the boys, who greatly enjoyed the occasion.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the yard of Peabody school building by Officers Sherwood and Mayhugh, who extinguished the flames. The fire, it is supposed, was caused by live coal in the ashes piled against the fence.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to John H. Perry and Margaret Pole, both of Fairfax county, and to Josiah G. Low, of Gainesville, and Christian G. Telford, of Baltimore.

Mr. J. M. Johnson, commissioner, has sold to Mr. S. B. Lunt lot No. 309 on south Columbus street, and to Mr. Edward Quinn house and lot No. 516 on north Pitt street.

In Circuit Court No. 2 in Washington yesterday, in the case of Mutersbaugh vs. Clements, a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff for $9,793.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of R. W. Wattles vs Charles S. Beach an order was entered quashing the execution.

Mrs. Janie Sherwood, wife of Mr. William Sherwood, of this city, died in Washington yesterday.

CORDOVA CONVICTED.

After six hours' deliberation the jury in New Brunswick, N. J., which tried J. Frank Cordova, the former South River minister who eloped with pretty Julia Bowne, one of his choir singers, for abandoning his wife, came into court last night with a verdict of "guilty as indicted." Cordova appeared to be greatly shaken by the verdict. He will probably be sentenced on Saturday. The extreme penalty is imprisonment for one year.

As soon as the case was given to the jury yesterday afternoon the second indictment against the ex-minister was called. It accuses him of assault and battery upon his wife. She and her 14 year-old daughter will be the principal witnesses. A jury was selected and the taking of testimony began today. In summing up Prosecutor Berdine scored the former minister severely, and once Cordova leaped from his seat in fury, sinking back again when the spectators howled at him and shoulted "sit down."

The close of the prosecutor's address was marked with cheering, which the court officers could not suppress.

There was loud handclapping and stamping of feet. "Good! good!" cried someone, and a woman in the back of the room called: "Now give it to him!"

Judge Strong's charge was plainly against Cordova.

Cannon Excommunicated.

The controversy of former United States Senator Frank J. Cannon, editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, with the authorities of the Mormon Church, an incident of which was the withdrawal of fellowship from Mr. Cannon by the bishop's court at Ogden, resulted yesterday in a formal order from the high council of the Weber stake at Zion, in Utah, sitting in Ogden, excommunicating Mr. Cannon from the church. The action was based on editorials written by Editor Cannon assailing the policy of the higher authorities of the church.

Mr. Cannon, protesting against the jurisdiction of the tribunal, which tried him under charges of apostasy and disloyalty to the church, admitted the authorship of the editorials complained of, and insisted that he should be permitted to prove the truth of the assertions which he had made. This point the ecclesiastical court declined to concede and the orders of disfellowship and excommunication followed.

Coincident with the excommunication of Editor Cannon was the filing of charges yesterday against Charles A. Smurthwaite. The taking of testimony will begin today.

Frank J. Cannon was elected to the United States Senate January 22, 1896. His term expired in March, 1899.

An Italian Tragedy.

Antonio Catapane, of 191 Mott street, New York, was removed to St. Vincent's Hospital, yesterday afternoon, in an unconscious and dying condition, with five bullet wounds in the back and arm, which, it is believed, were inflicted by Mrs Maria Prisca, 28 years old, a young married woman with whom he is said to have been been living at the Mott street address. According to the story told by Frank Geraci, who lived across the hall from Catapane, he heard screams coming from the apartments on the third floor yesterday afternoon and ran upstairs to investigate. There he found Catapane on the floor of the apartments, while two women were having the best of a physical encounter with him. Geraci ran out to call a policeman, and during his absence the shooting took place. Catapane was later found lying on the floor, while a search of the building revealed no traces of the women except a five-chambered revolver, with as many exploded cartridges. This was found in the main hall, under the stairway, where it is believed it was thrown after the shooting.

Sons Cut Off With $2.

The will of Thomas E. Barrett, the prosperous lumber man who died recently, after making all arrangements for his funeral, was probated in the Circuit Court in Winchester yesterday. It disposes of an extensive estate. Two sons, Jeremiah and Alvin Barrett, are cut off with $2 each and the rest of the estate goes to testator's widow and other children.

Constitutional Convention Reunion.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., March 15.—The advance guard of the Constitutional Convention reunion are arriving and much maneuvring is in progress. Mr. J. R. Caton, of Alexandria, is here and says he will make a thorough canvass of the State and is much encouraged at the prospects of his nomination for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Ellyson says he has received strong assurances of support from 91 counties and it looks as if the fight is between Ellyson and Caton.

Trial of Cordova.

New Brunswick, N. J., March 15.—Convicted of having abandoned his wife, J. F. Cordova, the eloping pastor, was again placed on trial, this morning, on the charge of having assaulted his wife, the jury having been drawn yesterday. Cordova maintained the same sullen attitude today, as he did on his first trial. Mrs. Cordova was called as the first witness. She testified that on the day of the assault, about the middle of April, 1904, Cordova was in the kitchen of their home, in South River. According to the wife's story she was bombarded with glasses, pans and other kitchen utensils. The trouble between the husband and wife was caused by the receipt of a letter. It was signed "Your loving Julia," and addressed "My Dear Loving Frank." "Julia was Miss Julia Bowne," said the witness. Mrs. Cordova said she got the letter from her husband's possession and this led to the assault.

Visited Old Home.

Cleveland, O., March 15.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick at 9:30, this morning, entered the Chadwick mansion in the aristocratic section of Euclid avenue for the first time since she left last November for her hurried trip to New York. She was escorted to the door by deputy marshals and was greeted at the open door by Dr. L. S. Chadwick, her husband, whom she had not seen for some time. He embraced her and then they chatted a few minutes in the presence of the deputies. Mrs. Chadwick showed no particular emotion at the meeting with her husband. Except for the greeting when she entered the home, the meeting between husband and wife was almost formal. Mrs. Chadwick was allowed three hours to select her goods.

Ship Wrecked

London, March 15.—A despatch to Lloyds from Senne, Cornwall, England, states that the British ship Khyber, bound from Melbourne, for Queenstown, has been wrecked. Of her crew of 26 men, only three were saved. The Khyber was a vessel of 1,927 tons net register, and was commanded by the Captain Rothery.

Bank Destroyed by Fire.

Goldfield, Nevada, March 15.—This great mining camp narrowly escaped destruction by fire this morning, when the Nye County Bank was burned. A safe containing nearly half a million dollars was saved. Pistol shots called volunteers. A bucket line was formed and the flames were quenched.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 15.—The action of the stock market indicated that to a considerable extent the reactionary movement which developed yesterday has exhausted itself. Some of the specialties continued to show strength and in the industrial group further gains were made. The iron and steel stocks and sugar were only steady. At the opening of the second hour the market was still ruling strong, although some natural reactions have taken place from top prices of the first hour.

Assistant District Attorney Rand announced today, in New York, that the third trial of Nan Patterson will be moved on April 10 next. This announcement was made after a consultation between Mr. Rand and Mr. Levy, senior counsel for Miss Patterson.

A full-dressed rehearsal was given last night of Mascagni's new opera, "Amica," before a crowded house at Monte Carlo, the audience including the Prince of Monaco. The title role was sung by the American soprano, Geraldine Farrar, after Calve had refused the part as not being good enough. The opera is not musically brilliant, but is strongly dramatic and is strengthened by powerful scenic effects. The plot centres about a peasant girl, "Amica," who sacrifices herself rather than destroy the happiness of two brothers, who are suitors for her hand.

Early Spring Sale of CHINAWARE.

At our annual Spring sale of Chinaware, which began today, we shall offer many exceptional values in daintily decorated China. The goods constituting this sale consist of various styles and designs from our regular stock which we shall not duplicate in the fall, and which, in order to close out before the warm weather, we offer at decided reductions from former prices.

Included also are special items from leading manufacturers which we have been able to purchase at a reduction for this sale.

The opportunity thus afforded is unusual and is of interest to proprietors of hotels, boarding houses and cafes and housekeepers generally. And we would advise frequent visits to the China Department during this sale, as every day will see something new added.

FAT MACKEREL for sale at 5c, 10c, and 20c each by J. C. MILBURN

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 15, 1905.

The Lost Chord.

He was a young man in lodgings, and he was learning to play the cornet. There was no disputing the earnestness and perseverance of this embryo cornetist. Every evening during the late heat wave he threw his window open and blew away at the "Lost Chord." it was ever the "Lost Chord."

In the commercial room of the hotel opposite the "knights of the road" sat scribbling off their orders and hurling anathemas at the head of the young man player. Finally they held a council of war and determined on his destruction. Cutting off a window cord, they rang for the boots and ordered him to take it across to the musician, with the following note:

"Dear Sir—Make no more trouble over your 'Lost Chord.' We send you a substitute, which we hope you will find long enough. We will arrange with the coroner and guarantee a decent burial."

The doleful notes of the "Lost Chord" were not heard in the street afterward.—London Globe.

The Mirror Galvanometer.

Some interesting tales are told of Lord Kelvin's discoveries and how the ideas of them came to his quick mind. For instance, this is said to have been the way in which he found the mirror galvanometer. He was puzzling over the difficulty of perfecting the ordinary telegraphic apparatus used on overhead wires, which was not suited for the varying current passing along cables. The lagging of the electric currents had the effect of making them run together into one bottom current, with surface ripples which correspond to the separate signals of the message. The problem was how to invent a means of interpreting clearly and easily all the delicate fluctuations. One day Lord Kelvin's eyeglass fell off and swung in front of the magnet, reflecting its movements, and instantly the idea of the mirror suggested itself. So a monocle has had a direct effect on science.

"Boots and Saddles."

The well known call of "boots and saddles" is really a corruption of the old French signal boute-selle—"put on your saddles"—from bouter, to put or place, and selle, saddle. The mediaeval saddles were of such a cumbrous and heavy make that they were taken off the horses whenever possible. In Mathew's "Powerful Favorite" of 1628 occurs the phrase "the trumpets sounded boute-selle."

In 1709 Steele wrote in the Tatler, "The sound was changed to 'boots and saddle,'" but it seems probable that the phrase ran in its present form before that date, possibly coming into use during the civil war among the Roundheads, to whom the old French boute-selle would seem pandering to the cavalier and French tendencies of the court.—London Times.

The Missionary's False Tooth.

A well known Church of England missionary among the aborigines of Queensland, Australia, gained great influence over a certain tribe in a very peculiar manner. This tribe had the queer custom of having the front tooth of the upper jaw knocked out. The missionary by accident had lost this same tooth and replaced it by a false one. When he got talking with the aborigines, he would pull it out, point to the hollow place and say, "Me, brother, belong to you!" In this way he gained the complete confidence of the tribe, converted every member of it to Christianity and introduced as much civilization as they were capable of assimilating.

Everything Here Short.

The late M. A. Lower, the antiquary, is responsible for this Lullington anecdote:

One Sunday morning the curate, a man of diminutive stature, preached from the shortest text in the Bible, "Jesus wept," to a congregation of a dozen people, and the offertory realized only 18 pence, whereupon a stranger remarked that it was the smallest church, the smallest congregation, the smallest parson, the shortest text and the smallest collection he had ever known.—Westminster Gazette.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promply like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who has tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest, It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success.
